Welcome to Upper Elementary !!
Summer Reading 2022

Dear Parents,

IT's SUMMER TIME! Along with playing in the sun and relaxing I encourage students to continue sharpening up their reading skills.

For students going into Upper Elementary from Lower, you will be reading:

1. "Pirates Past Noon" by Mary Pope Osborne and
2. "Mango, Abuela, and Me" by Meg Medina.

Attached are questions for "Pirates Past Noon" with an accompanying book report and then a second book report to be completed with "Mango, Abuela, and Me".

Handwriting and coloring should be neat and legible. All sections should be completed in student's handwriting. I encourage students to have a reading schedule to avoid any last-minute stress. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me.

Happy Reading!

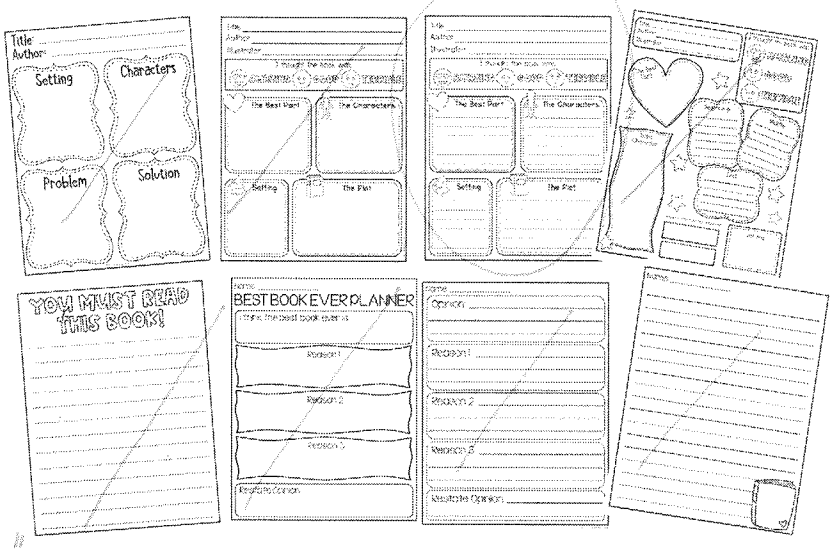
What I thought:

INSTRUCTIONS

 I suggest printing the book cover pages on thicker paper such as card to ensure the craftivity is not see through.

STEP ONE:

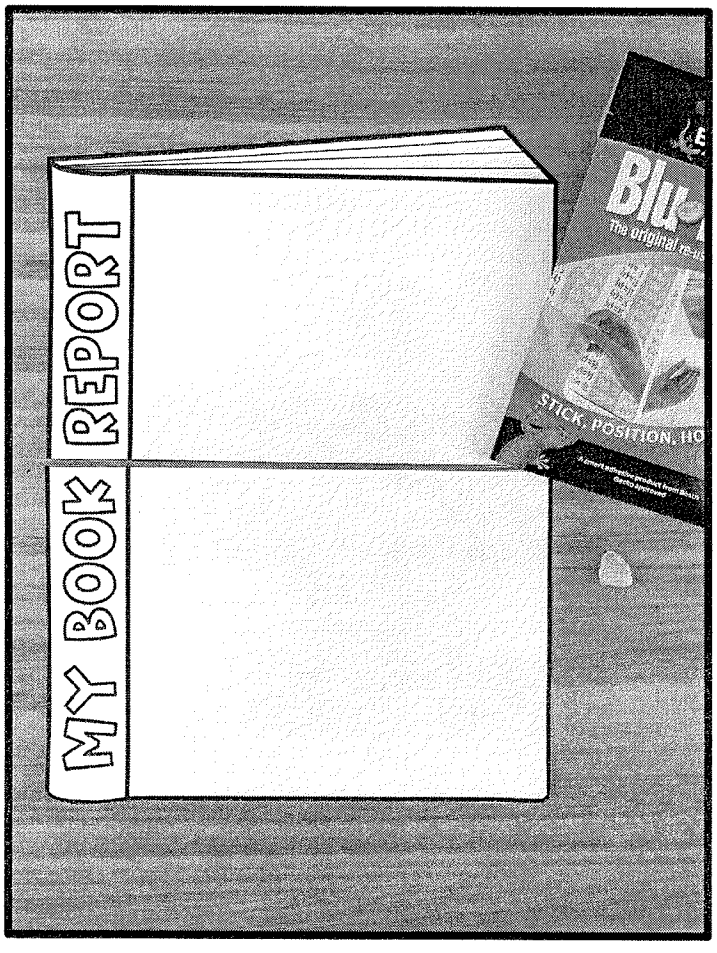
Choose the sheet/s that you would like your students to use and have them complete it.



For Book "Mango, Abuela, and Me"

STEP TWO:

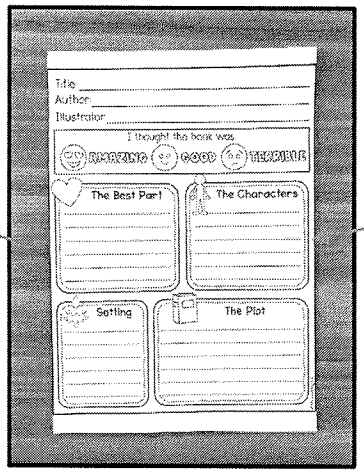
Before they draw the front book cover, I suggest compiling the craftivity first so that it is easier for them to draw on (See the next page for assembly instructions). Alternatively, use some tack to stick the 2 pieces together onto their tables.



INSTRUCTIONS

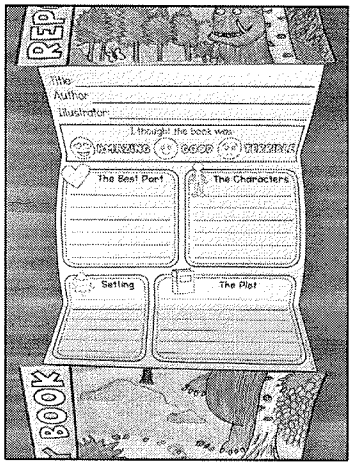
STEP FOUR:

To assemble, cut off the left and right edges of your chosen page. Make sure to leave the top and bottom edges as these will be needed to glue on the book pieces.



STEP FIVE:

Glue the two book pieces on either end of the writing paper.



STEP SIX:

Fold the paper so that the book pieces meet in the middle. See the YouTube video here for a folding demonstration.
